

Mother,

You are my STAR - shining, guiding, and directing my paths always. I will love you forever and always.

Jesus said He came to serve, not to be served. In so many ways, you walked, even skipped, along the paths that Jesus set before you. The paths you chose in your life are many that I want to emulate, which are patterned after Him - to serve others. I thank God for His choosing me to be your daughter. I am forever grateful to you and you will remain in my heart until we meet again in eternity.

One of the many virtues you possessed was that of a giver. You were always giving of yourself to others whether it was time, talent or generosity. I remember the many times when I visited you, I left with something from you to take home. You would give me a loaf of your homemade bread or a piece of clothing you did not need. You were always blessing me with something. Recently, I visited Daddy and he pulled out a few coats that belonged to you. He asked if I could use them. I tried them on and they fit perfectly. Once again, I left your home with something and thinking that even though it was through Daddy, you are in heaven still blessing me.

Blessings found us raised in a home that taught us the importance of sharing, giving, respect and love of family. Engraining eight children with strength of character and sound morals is a challenge for any mother of this society. It is against this backdrop that I want to thank you for being the mother you were to us and also to thank the family from which you came (our ancestors) for molding you to be you. I am also thankful to your brothers and sisters who contributed in our upbringing. You also had the wisdom to choose your life mate, our father, which allowed us to be products of your love. Thank you, Mother.

My Dear Mother,

I praise God for all the love, care and concern you so unselfishly shared, not only with your husband and children, but to everyone you came in contact with. I pray that God Almighty rewards you in heaven and that He continues to bless all your generations with a kindness and love such as yours.

Mother,

Rarely does a day go by that I'm not reminded of your beauty, strength, warmth or love. It may be the sight of a flower, a certain song or poem, or doing something for someone, unconditionally. You shall be missed and loved and remembered forever.

In loving memory of your first-born child, Jerald "Jerry" Michael Bridges, who preceded you in death but who is celebrating your reunion in heaven. One day, we will all enjoy that great camp meeting in eternity.
